Happy Birthday Queen Elizabeth II

Thank you to everyone who helped to make our celebrations for the Queen so memorable. You were all very generous with cakes, as always. Seeing so many people attend was fabulous. A lovely afternoon was certainly had by all.

children, to prepare them for secondary school, we do expect the homework to be completed. If your child does not complete their homework on a second occasion during a short term, you will receive a telephone call to see if we can support in any way and to address any issues there may be. Please let your class teacher know if your child is experiencing any difficulties with completing the homework.

Early Years Outdoor Area

I am sure you will agree that the Early Years Outdoor area is really starting to take shape. The children and staff are all very excited and regularly check on what is happening. There are lots of rumours about what it will contain – we'll have to be patient, but rest assured – no Jacuzzi or hot tub will be appearing!

Tully Cup

This term, our school value is be Service. The children will be encourage to reflect on the way Jesus exemplified in his person, ministry and relationship with God, what it was to be called the 'servant king'. Christians believe that their calling is to follow Jesus' example according to their gifts or abilities. Winners this week: KS 1 – Sophia Dannatt KS 2 – Charlie Burgin

Summer Term

Our topic this term will be Global Gardens and then Rio. If you have any ideas or contacts we could use to enrich these topics please let us know. The FOLS, together with the children and staff are organising a Summer Carnival this year rather than a Summer Fair.

Homework

This term we have sent homework books to enable a more consistent system across the school. Your class teachers will have informed you when the homework is due back to school for assessing. We understand that at times it is difficult to fit everything in. however, to enable us to monitor progress and certainly for the older
